IBERO-ROMAN CITY OF CÁSTULO

One of the defining characteristics of the territory of Cástulo is its uninterrupted occupation from the late 3rd millennium BC until the 15th century, when the city was abandoned, marking the end of a continuous urban presence that has contributed to the preservation of its heritage values to this day.

ÚBEDA AND BAEZA (UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE)

The Renaissance monumental ensembles of Úbeda and Baeza in Jaén were declared World Heritage Sites by UNESCO in 2003, thanks to the proliferation of churches, convents, and palaces built during the 16th century.
